35mm flat bottom

Add a classy touch to your master bath or kitchen sink with a Rubine STYLO faucet. This series of faucet features a simple, yet elegant design with soft, sleek lines and an elongated rectangular spout. It's made of solid brass and tested at high water pressure, making sure of the high quality and durability; in fact, all Rubine faucets used cartridges that tested to 50,000 times and were coupled with a water-saving aerator that met International Standard. Designed to complement the different settings of your bathroom and kitchen, you can choose from three available finishes: glossy chrome, matt black, and enameled white.
