35mm up-sealed high bottom

Rubine tapware has come a long way since its first introduction two decades ago. Today, it has a diverse collections of tapware that meet different designs and budget requirements. The UNICO series is another creation from our designer's wild imagination, the idea was evolved from the alicorn of an unicorn. It's horn-shaped lever handle perfectly reflects a natural and original form of contemporary design. Electroplated surface coating and 50,000 cycle cartridge declare a strong statement in the quality of these faucets. UNICO is reliable and truly eye-catching, a definite choice of adding luxury to your modern kitchen & bathroom.
